Biography Of The Late Dorcas ALLIORTLUE-QUAICOE

Blessed and Holy is the one that hath part in the first resurrection. On such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years."
Rev. 20:6

The parentage of Dorcas natively called Ewuara Adwoa Eko, is traced to Rev. Joseph Awortwe-Quaicoe and Rev. Mrs. Matilda Awortwe-Quaicoe. Born at Tarkwa Goldfields Hospital in 1984, she schooled at Goldfields Schools Complex, Tarkwa, for her primary and middle school education. She had her second education at Tarkwa Senior High School and continued to tertiary at Jayee University for Diploma in Accounting.

She got married to one Michael Obeng and had two children with him – a girl and a boy. Unfortunately, the marriage did not last long. She then relocated from Accra to Tarkwa. She secured a job t Ransbet C. Ltd. A job she did until her demise on 28th May, 2023.

Dorcas was raised up a Christian and she worshiped with Fruitful House Chapel. All throughout her life, she was quiet and peaceful. Her favourite hobbies were cooking, singing of Gospel and watching movies. Dorcas was a loving and caring mother and would do everything to keep her children tidy and happy. We remember her a lot for her Sunday afternoon jollof rice. On that fateful Sunday, the 28th of May, 2023, you disrupted the church service with your departure.

The call for Daddy to return home immediately from church was unusual, but informative enough. It suggested that you needed to commune with us for the last time. When your sister Naana and Daddy arrived, Mummy was busy resuscitating you.

On sensing their presence, you managed to respond temporarily to life. You beckoned Daddy and tried to communicate a farewell message to him but inadequate breath would not allow you to articulate your words. You reached out to pick Daddy's hand and placed it on our chest. Soon after prayers had been offered for you, you breathed out your life.

If prayers, money and attention were adequate to give you life, you would have qualified for it. Big hospitals, great and renewed doctors across the globe, big and international laboratories, expensive drugs, all could not sustain you. We conclude that God needs you most.

Dorcas, your life though short, was deep and fulfilling. It meant a lot to us.

Da yie Dorcas, Da yie Ewura Adwoa
Da yie Adwoa EKO Awortwe-Quaicoe
May God keep you safe in Abraham's bosom

Amen!!!

Mummy, Mummy, Mummy!!!

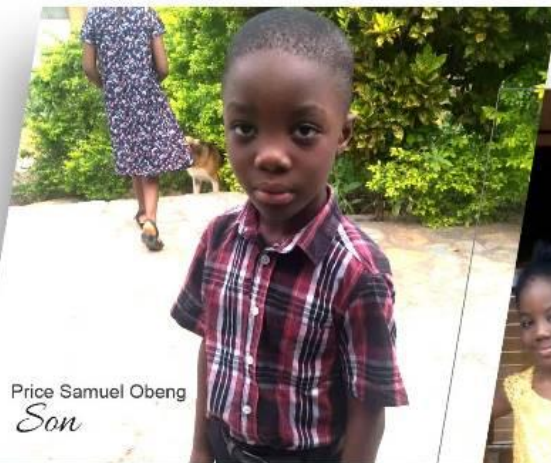

Is it true? Am I dreaming? Is it real? Grandma says you are in heaven. Ah!! But we believed that God would answer our prayers. That God would heal you. Mummy, you assured us that you would not die. Does that mean that we don't have a mummy anymore? I need answers to these questions.

Who will help me do my homework? Who will buy us birthday gifts and organize our birthday parties both at home and at school? Who will send us out for swimming?

Mummy, you promised to take us to Hotel de Hilda, Longji, Eagles Nest and Hot Grills for pizza and other nice treats. Who will fulfill these promises and be our mummy? God, we look up to you. God, please keep our mother in heaven for us. We love you Mummy and we know you love us more.

Mummy Dorcas, May your soul rest in heaven.

Da yie Mummy Dorcas. Da yie.

For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable and we will be changed. When the perishable is clothed with imperishable then we will say... Oh death where is your sting? 1 Cor 15:52b, 54& 55

Dorki!!!! The thought of writing your tribute at this stage in life just brought tears to my eyes. Although you were well, our hope was for you to fully recover as we engaged in both physical and spiritual intervention.

Dorcas we have a diagnosis now o but you didn't even wait to try the medication.

You have always been the quiet one since we were little but you will just be smiling and laughing whilst the rest of us do the most of the talking.

Your love for cooking was admirable. You loved to cook and it made you happy to cook for every one. It was your way of reaching out and showing love and we will always remember you for that. These past months have been difficult for all of us as we prayed and hoped for your recovery but God knows best. This is a bitter pill to swallow and we don't know how we are going to move on from here since the set of 5 is no longer complete.

However, we take heart in the fact that you are at peace and no longer in pain. I know you are happy and we will take that as a form of consolation.

As for Kayla and Prince, be at peace because they have 3 extra mummies and an extra daddy.

They will make our set of 5 pseudo complete.

Rest well Dorki!!! We love you!! We miss u!!

Be our angel and watch over us!!

Ewuradwoa Da yie!!

Tribute By RANSBET SUPPLIES (2003)LTD

If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord (Romans 14:8)

It is with a heavy heart that we come together to bid farewell to our dear sister and co-worker, Dorcas Awortwe-Quaicoe. She was employed on 12th August, 2019 as a Shop Supervisor at the time Ransbet was outdooring its second shopping mall, the Ransbet Supercenter at Kawerekwano.

Dorcas worked there for a while, and was later transferred to the main warehouse at Ahwetieso as a Warehouse Officer, a position she held until her passing. She was clever and hardworking employee. she was very friendly and willing to undertake and accomplish assigned task on time.

Her untimely demise on Sunday 28th May, 2023, though painful, there is no way we can bring our sister back. indeed, we have lost one of our hardworking employees. Dorcas will forever be remembered for her trustworthiness and truthfulness, a rare virtue these days. Will our actions echo in eternity, when we are gone? Certainly Dorcas's virtue will be a great hallmark in Ransbet.

We will forever be grateful that God gave you to us. We do not wonder where you are. You also have a father who loves you more than we can ever do. You found your rest in Him. The most important decision you took was receiving Christ. We love you Dorcas

Enjoy His presence until we meet again

I need no other argument

1. My faith has found a resting place
Not in device nor creed;
I trust the ever-living one,
His wounds for me shall plead

Chorus:
I need no other argument
I need no other plea
It is enough that Jesus died
And that he died for me.

2. Enough for me that Jesus saves
This ends y fear ad doubt; A sinful soul i come to him He'll never cast me out

In the sweet by and by

1. There's a land that is fairer than day
And by faith we can see it afar;
For the Father waits over the way,
to prepare us a dwelling place there

Chorus:
In the sweet by and by
We shall meet on that beautiful shore
In the sweet by and by
We shall meet on that beautiful shore

2. We shale sing on that beautiful shore
The melodious songs of the blest,
And our spirits shall sorrow no more;
Not a sigh for the blessing of rest
